CALL FOR ENTRIES

JUROR

JAYME MCLELLAN is an artist and curator living and working in Washington, DC. She is the founding director of Civilian Art Projects, a gallery representing emerging and established artists located in downtown Washington just north of Chinatown. McLellan has worked in the arts since the mid-nineties curating exhibitions and organizing events in galleries and alternative spaces in Washington, DC; New Orleans, LA; Minneapolis, MN; New York, NY; Miami, FL; and museums in Canada and Europe. Civilian Art Projects is the second arts organization founded by McLellan and her first solo venture. Prior to Civilian, McLellan co-founded and served as co-director of Transformer (2002-2006). From 1998 to 2001, she was director of development for the District of Columbia Arts Center (DCAC), where she organized a large scale, international exchange and exhibition among other things. In addition to running Civilian, she is adjunct faculty at the Corcoran College of Art & Design and St. Mary's College of Maryland. She leads classes on Professional Practices for Visual Artists and curatorial theory.

RULES

ELIGIBILITY All Mid-Atlantic artists (DC, VA, MD, PA, NJ, DE, WV) are invited to submit up to 4 jpegs of paintings or works related in some way to painting completed in the last two years and not previously exhibited at MPA. Work that combines painting with other materials is acceptable and encouraged as well. Each of the submitted works must be available for exhibit if chosen by the juror. Works must fit through an 81" x 64" doorway.

AWARDS Cash prizes totaling $1,500 will be awarded by the juror. Decisions are final.

ENTRY FEE $25. Fee waived for current MPA members. Fee includes one-year artist membership in MPA. Make checks payable to McLean Project for the Arts.

IMAGES Artists may submit up to four digital images on a CD or up to 10 minutes of recorded material. Please do not email submissions.

SALES A 25% sales commission will be retained by MPA on all sales. Work will be sold at the price listed on the typed image checklist unless marked Not For Sale (NFS).

LIABILITY Works are insured for the sales price minus the commission or the stated insurance value from receipt of artwork at the gallery through designated pick-up date and time.

SHIPPING Artists are responsible for shipping artwork (delivery and pick-up) to and from MPA according to the calendar.

INSTALLATION All works must be received ready for installation with proper hanging devices attached and instructions where necessary. MPA reserves the right to refuse any work that is improperly presented or unsafe for display.

AGREEMENT All accepted works must remain for the duration of the show. MPA reserves the right to photograph accepted works for publicity and educational purposes. MPA or the juror reserves the right to reject works that differ from the submitted image. MPA is not responsible for works left after the pick-up dates following the close of the exhibition. Submission of an entry constitutes understanding and agreement with all the conditions set forth in this prospectus.
